be appointed as the Jailor of the Bangalore Central Jail."

7) The Inspector General of Prisons is also of the same opinion and says that "the executive officer of a Jail ought to be men of commanding personality in addition to possessing a good record of Service."

8) If the above views are approved, then it is necessary to consider how far the candidates now recommended fulfil the conditions mentioned above. Information will be called for, if approved. It is also a point for consideration whether it is not desirable to appoint a Police officer of higher pay and status for the post. The pay of the Chief Jailor is Rs 150-5-175 whereas the pay of the Inspectors proposed is only Rs 70-4-150 respectively.

Now that the Government have directed that their appointments are temporary for a period of six months, I beg to submit that it would be inconvenient in the interests of Public Service, to make any stopgap arrangements in their stead, during such a short period, in as much as they are executive officers, both being in charge of important duties, requiring special technical training and experience, the former in charge of the Bangalore-Nanjangud Railway Police, and the latter in the Provincial Special Reserve Police Force, where pukka efficient arrangements will have to be made, unlike in any clerical establishment; and for such short time, no seriatim arrangements, affecting several charges or Taluks, are feasible or expedient, without serious dislocation of work in many places.
